

Strategic partnerships to grow music in specialist schools

Fun, participatory activities focused on engagement, communication & pupil choice, voice & wellbeing. Wide-ranging genres / instruments

Growing the amount, quality and impact of music in specialist schools is important to all of us working in music education.

A strategic partnership with Live Music Now can help drive change and ensure we all achieve better outcomes for children and young people in special schools.

We are specialists in providing high quality, engaging, participatory concerts and workshop series.

"The session supported pupils' personal & social development."
