
PROGRAMME FOR SCHOOLS

INSPIRING SESSIONS TO SUPPORT MUSICAL ENGAGEMENT AND WELLBEING

Live Music Now offers Covid-safe music sessions for schools, both in-person and online. Our trained musicians follow latest government guidance and school procedures for Covid-safe sessions.

We can create a bespoke offer for your school and have funding to subsidise the cost of sessions in certain geographical areas – so please ask! Contact us today for more information: schools@livemusicnow.org.uk

"The vital role of music and the wider arts in supporting mental health, social engagement, and learning in children is well recognised globally, backed by high quality scientific data. This role of music is more important now, during a global crisis, than ever."

Dr Daisy Fancourt, Music Unlocked, Music Mark, Sep 21
